

T.D. WATERS

ALIAS

My SASS name is T.D. Waters, but friends call me Wyatt. I am a proud member of the Canadian Cowboy Confederacy and the Single Action Shooting Society. I've been shooting "cowboy action" for 7 years.

My interest in the "cowboy way" started from watching Saturday cowboy matinee movies when I was 12 years old. I guess I haven't quite hit "13" yet.

I have never met finer people than I have in this sport. Many I'm sure will be lifelong friends. Some of us have a competitive drive, some enjoy the period clothing, social gatherings and fine firearms (my undoubted favourite is the pistol). But we are all in it for the fun!

Anyone that loves the old west and period firearms will instantly fall in love with this sport. So come on out, live the dream, and call down the thunder.
